

Marc Cain is an innovative, internationally successful and dynamic fashion company in the premium segment of women clothing. Our fashion is for the sophisticated woman - imaginative, fascinating and female. The high-quality collections reflect the modernity and creativity of our employees. We are seeking a high-performing Luxury Sales Associate with a strong background in clienteling and relationship-driven sales. The ideal candidate is passionate about luxury retail, thrives in a sales-driven environment, and excels at building long-term relationships with clients.

Part-Time Luxury Sales Associate (GN)

Marc Cain Store - Toronto

Key Responsibilities

- Deliver an exceptional and personalized luxury client experience
- Build and maintain a strong client book through clienteling, outreach, and follow-ups
- Consistently meet and exceed individual sales targets
- Maintain the highest standards of luxury presentation and service
- Support daily store operations and collaborate with the team to drive business

Qualifications

- Previous experience in luxury or premium retail sales required
- Proven success with clienteling and repeat business development

- Strong communication and relationship-building skills
- Self-motivated with a results-driven mindset
- Professional, polished, and service-oriented
- Flexible availability, including weekdays and weekends

Positions Details

- Part-time: 15–20 hours per week
- Must be available weekdays and weekends

This is a great opportunity for a strong luxury seller who is passionate about building client relationships and driving sales results.

If this position appeals to you, we look forward to receiving your complete application documents including cover letter, current curriculum vitae as well as all certificates in English language.

Jenny Katz

recruiting@marc-cain.de

JOIN OUR COMMUNITY!

Jetzt bewerben