

Marc Cain is an innovative, internationally successful, and dynamic fashion company in the premium segment of women's outerwear. Our fashion is designed for the discerning woman—imaginative, fascinating, and feminine. The high-quality collections reflect the modernity and creativity of our employees. We are looking for a

Assistant Store Manager (GN)

Marc Cain Store - Knokke

Your tasks

- You will lead and motivate your team and ensure a positive working environment
- You will ensure that all operational processes in the store run smoothly
- You will advise and sell our Marc Cain collections with passion and look after our regular and new customers
- Your tasks will also include preparation, follow-up, and support with order
- You will monitor stock levels, place orders, and ensure optimal product presentation

Your profile

- You already have experience in selling high-quality women's outerwear and some initial experience as a assistant store manager (GN)
- You are customer-oriented and have excellent interpersonal skills

- You inspire others with your confident and positive attitude and high level of self-motivation
- You enthusiastically convey the Marc Cain lifestyle
- You have very good english or german language skills—additional language skills are desirable

We offer a diverse range of tasks in a stylish working atmosphere with a high degree of personal responsibility. You will be supported by our guidelines and a user-friendly merchandise management system. Our interactions with each other are characterized by sympathy and respect.

If this role appeals to you, we look forward to receiving your complete application documents with a cover letter, current resume, and all references. Please apply using the “Apply now” button below, which will redirect you to our application form.

If you have any questions, please contact:

Jenny Katz

07471 709-4236

JOIN OUR COMMUNITY!

Jetzt bewerben